FRESHMAN WEEK EXTRA

ST. MICHAEL'S COLLEGE, WINOOSKI, VERMONT

SEPTEMBER 12, 1966

"A VERY UNWELCOME TO YOU"

Looking Back at past issues of the MICHAELMAN it is apparent that the editorial welcoming Freshmen is pretty much a cliché, similar to the ones heard at high school graduations. The past editorials all begin, 'Welcome Freshmen, Class of 19??' and continue on to state that you have the capabilities to succeed in college and to wish you the best of luck. It is a bore to read and a bore to write, so why continue with it. Let us start anew and to the contrary.

A very unwelcome to you, Class of 1970.

Here you are at college, that wonderful place where overnight boys become men, free thinkers and independent. Away from parental care and rule. No one to tell you when to shave or get a hair cut, to study and not go out or to attend church on Sunday, Ah yes, no more chain and ball to drag about and hold back the "real you."

Indeed, it is true that college is where the boy takes his first real steps toward becoming a man. And it is there that man begins to think for himself and become independent.

But Freshmen always tend to think the way to becoming a man is to break every rule encountered and to tear down every sign of authority. In the past few years college has become that place where you want, when you want and the way you want. Or so many think. Now many of you think of college as an institution of higher learning, where you live in a community of students, governed by a set of rules for the well being of all involved and for the purpose of gaining knowledge? With knowledge will come maturity and a free thinking and independent man.

Observe the difference between Juniors and Seniors and Freshmen and Sophomores. You will notice that there is considerable more noise of all forms from the underclassmen than from the upper-classmen. Why? What do they know that you do not?

If you are the typical Freshman Class, then a very unwelcome to you. But, if you know the answer to that question, the editors of The MICHAELMAN welcome you, Class of 1970, to St. Michael's.

Senior Hall, new headquarters for Faculty Offices.

MIKETOWN

Miketown, site of the new Jeremiah Kinsella Library, was evacuated this summer and with it went some 20 years of St. Michael's history.

Groundbreaking for the library took place Aug. 13 during Homecoming activities for alumni.

The wooden barracks buildings which created Miketown had been on the Hilltop since 1946. They came from Fort Ethan Allen where St. Michael's now has an extension campus.

The Fort had been de-activated as an infantry post during the war and was serving chiefly as a storage depot in 1946 when the Rev. James H. Petty, S.S.E., 7th president of St. Michael's, and Rev. Daniel P. Lyons, S.S.E., 8th president, visited the Fort in May and June of that year in the hope of acquiring some surplus government property for emergency use at the college which had a record enrollment.

In July, 22 buildings were moved from the Fort to St. Michael's College.

The buildings served immediately as apartments for married veterans, as dormitories, dining rooms, a convent for the Sisters of St. Martha, an auditorium, infirmary, and eventually a classroom building and library.

In those buildings were housed the first offices of THE MICHAELMAN, the campus newspaper; Radio Station WSSE; the snack bar; the Knights and Naves, campus drama organization.

Austin Hall, the first of these buildings to be demolished, was torn down in 1961 to make way for the fourth hall in the dormitory quadrangle.

In recent years the buildings housed the foreign students, faculty offices, Air Force ROTC, Knights of Columbus headquarters, the photography darkrooms, art studios, library, infirmary, and WSSE.

With the going of Miketown the faculty offices were moved into Senior Hall (Greystone) and St. Edmund's Hall. Business Manager John Buchan said it was a "temporary move until such time as a faculty office area can be constructed."

The photography area moved into Senior Hall and WSSE, homeless, got its equipment stored in the basement of that building.

The Air Force ROTC offices have been transferred to Aquinas Hall, one of the few remaining wooden structures, and the art studios were fully moved to Aquinas.

In what had been Miketown, all the utility lines were installed for the new library this summer. When completed all the pole lines will be taken down and will go underground. The college will have to go from a 2300 voltage system to a 4160 system in this area due to the fact that the library's air-conditioning and heating system will double the electric power load which had been used.

Construction of the library has been held up due to a hold up in the government Higher Education Bill in Congress (which has yet to be passed). This has postponed government financing for the library construction and thus the construction could not be started July 1 as planned last Spring.

In other areas of the building program, Buchan announced that new dressing rooms for athletes were being constructed in the Gymnasium along with storage room at the Ethan Allen campus.

The Staff of THE MICHAELMAN extends its sympathies to the family of William A. Battisti who died accidentally this summer. A member of the class of 1968, Bill was electrocuted in July at the Thatcher Glass Manufacturing Plant in Elmira Heights, N.Y., where he was working.

association of Le Moyne College in Syracuse, N.Y. since 1962; he was associate director of development at Loyola University Chicago, Ill. from 1956 to 1962; and was in the advertising department of Montgomery Ward in Chicago from 1952 to 1956. He has his bachelor's and master's degrees from Loyola University.

Ross is a graduate of St. Michael's in the class of 1956.

McCaffrey practiced law in Manchester, N.H. since securing his LL.B. from Fordham University School of Law in 1961. While at St. Michael's he was a member of the first basketball squad to go to the NCAA tournament at Evansville, Indiana.

O'Connor received his degree at Northeastern University in 1952. He worked as a reporter for the Utica Daily Press, the Boston Post, the Schenectady Gazette, the Rutland Herald, and the Boston Globe, before taking a position as an assistant in the office of public relations at Boston College in 1960.

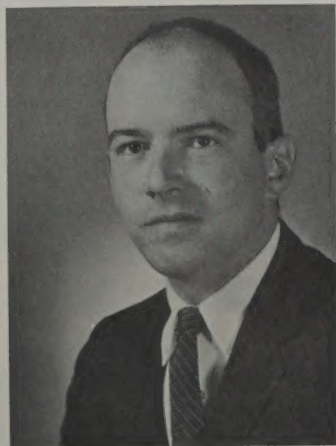

The new department began functioning August 1. The Very Rev. Gerald E. Dupont, S.S.E.,

Office of Development and Public Relations Created

An office of Development and Public Relations has been created at St. Michael's, bringing under one head the Development Office, the Publicity Office, and the Alumni Office. Arnold R. Schaid has been appointed director.

Arnold R. Schaid

James C. Ross

Assisting Schaid in the office of development is James C. Ross who has been alumni secretary at St. Michael's since 1961.

Replacing Ross in the alumni office is Francis B. McCaffrey, an alumnus from the class of 1958.

Leo J. O'Connor is director of publicity.

John D. Donoghue who had been Director of Public Relations since 1947 left this summer to become assistant to the provost of the four Vermont State Colleges, Donoghue who started publication of The Michaelman, acted as moderator from its beginning in 1947. O'Connor will moderate the student weekly newspaper.

Schaid has been director of development and executive secretary of the alumni

Francis B. McCaffrey

St. Michael's president, said: "By this move we hope to continue and intensify the good work that has been performed at St. Michael's College in recent years by the Very Rev. Jeremiah T. Purtill, S.S.E., Director of Development, John D. Donoghue, Director of Public Relations, and James C. Ross, Secretary of the Alumni."
